First Printing. Book is tight, square, and unmarked. Book Condition: New. No DJ. Pictorial Wraps. Wraps are not bent or folded; spine is not creased or split. 452 pp. On May 1, 1915 the luxury liner Lusitania in spite of the Captain's faith in the gentlemanly structures of warfare then in place on civilian ships, was torpedoed by a German U-Boat. A combination of forces was at work that day: hubris, a chance fog, a closely guarded secret, the German desire to change the rules of the game. This book captures the sheer drama and emotional power of a disaster whose intimate details and true meaning have been long obscured by history. A clean pristine new copy.
