Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Sussex Archaeological Collections, Vol. 17: Relating to the History and Antiquities of the County If a certain monotony appears in the Annual Reports of the Sussex Archaeological Society, it is the monotony of continued success and of cordial feeling among its constituents. As years roll by, there is no falling off, either in the interest of the Society's publications or in the success of those pleasant meetings in time-hallowed spots which have ever been characteristic of the Association. From circumstances over which the Committee have had little control, the publication of the present volume has been for some time delayed; but it is hoped that in coming years the Collections will be in the hands of members as early at least in the year as heretofore. The presentation of an annual volume has been a great element of the Society's prosperity, and although the Rules make no pledge for such a return for the very moderate subscription, it is intended to continue it so long as the Society's sources of pecuniary income and literary contributions are available. The delay alluded to enables us on the present occasion to record the public proceedings of two successive years, 1864 and 1865. The Annual Meeting of the former year took place at Seaford, the interesting churches of Bishopston and Blatchington being included in the day's programme. Some elucidations of the various objects of interest were offered by Mr. M. A. Lower. The more festive portion of the day's proceedings took place, as usual, beneath the shadow of the Society's well-known tent, and under the auspices of the Rt. Honourable the President of the...
