For Pamela, falling in love had been a magical experience and all she d ever imagined was that the man she would end up with would give her love that would blossom into a forever after fairytale. Ian had been that candidate. Captured under his love spell Pamela could see herself spending the rest of her life with Ian; But then the inevitable happened, the same man who d promised her forever went away and fell in love with another. Grieved and broken hearted Pamela must do everything in her power to put the past behind her and focus on her career. But an event takes place that changes Pamela s perspective and beliefs about love. Will hope enable her to escape the betrayal that she was once subjected to and will love strike again?.
