Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Meus Insomnium is an ancient Latin phrase meaning either My Dream or My Nightmare, depending on one s perspective. It chronicles the struggles of handsome 49-year-old Ohio psychiatrist Dr. Jonas Reddington and his two most troubled patients: Wesley, 57, an African-American postman who as a child hiding in a Georgia cornfield witnessed the brutal Klan murder of his grandfather; and Jacob, 74, a survivor of Auschwitz concentration camp wrestling with the loss of his sister there many years ago. Peppered with fascinating historical revelations and photographs, the poignant story raises a soul-searching question: Which carries more weight, justice or forgiveness? Meus Insomnium is an unforgettable journey into the power of the human spirit, faith - and much more.
