This covers about all phases of war work, and indicates the special tasks of each department and group in the church. Emergency War Measures. In cooperation with the Social Service Committee of the Convention, the War Commission joined in the preparation and distribution of a leaflet on emergency war measures. Army and Navy Chaplains. The subcommittee prepared a leaflet under this title setting forth the place of a chaplain and the type of service required. The Secretary of the Commission has had many letters from chaplains in camp here and overseas. Extracts from these letters have been gathered and sent to our religious papers. In this way many of our people have been kept informed concerning the chaplains and their work. We take this opportunity of recording our appreciation of the generous service of our religious weeklies in giving their space. XI. Finances The Commission has carried forward the work entrusted to it with a comparatively limited budget. Some of the religious bodies with a smaller membership than our own have raised more money than we. But we confidently believe that nobody has secured more satisfactory results. Very early in the war the War Commission set out to raise its own funds for this work. But in November, 1917, a meeting of our Baptist laymen was held, at which time the work and needs of the denomination were fully considered. The group of laymen who have carried forward the Victory Campaign...
