Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Territorial Question Such a solemn agreement should receive the greatest respect, and the unyielding support of all good citizens. The organic act, or constitution, constitutes the basis upon which all the acts of the government are founded, and by which the people connected with such government are induced to respect and sustain such acts. Many of the people may not always and at all times approve of some of those acts, because their judgments or prejudices may be in opposition; but as they have been enacted by that branch of government which was established by the constitution, they adopt the necessity of compliance until they are repealed or modified in a legal and constitutional manner. A government organized upon such a basis is supposed to be free from the charge of tyranny, and the people are looked upon as being no other than freemen. The constitution being a compact, made by and between the people, possesses therefore a mutual character, which is thus placed beyond the control of the mere prejudices or even the...
