Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A FEW WORDS FROM THE AUTHOR A few weeks ago yesterday, I was standing in line at Luby s at noon. Rather than being bored I had my iPhone in my hand fiddling with it and created The Angora Chronicles on Facebook before I passed the salads. A week later I had told perhaps half the stories I know. I realize that perhaps telling the stories of my life are much like my life has been, Fast and Furious. Dang, maybe I should not have used that term since it has taken on the meaning of something screwed up, out of control, just plain crazy. On second thought I guess it does apply. I got very excited about The Angora Chronicles on Facebook. I had been penning stories for almost twenty years with the intent of having something to leave my Grandkids. The group gave me the opportunity to do that very thing and share other peoples stories at the same time. Maybe everyone has adventures similar to mine but they forget them. I just have the ability to remember them. Which may be a blessing or a curse. A curse because things are constantly rolling around in my head. Instead of focusing on what needs to get done. I told my wife a true story the other night that she had no memory of, even though she was there. (I m not saying she is getting old and forgetful, but. Ok, I ll stop with that.) We had traveled from Marble Falls to San Antonio for our 1970 senior trip. (Whoopee, that was a dandy trip after putting in 12 hard years) Late in...
