Jessica Kingsley Publishers. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Writing Skills in Practice: A Practical Guide for Health Professionals, Diana Williams, 'The author of this book is a speech and language therapist, and is still practising in the health service, which gives her advice practical value. If all writers followed the principles in her book their readers, in whatever capacity, should owe Ms Williams a debt of gratitude.' - Physiotherapy Journal 'the book is written in a user-friendly format and flows in a logical way. It provides very practical ideas and advice, covering all areas of written information. It would be ideal as an introductory text for novice practitioners or those wanting to update their knowledge about standards in providing written information. This book would be useful for any department as a reference book for all practitioners at any level.' - British Journal of Occupational Therapy 'This text offers clear and concise advice on the development and use of writing skills. The style is one of numerous checklists, applied to various writing contexts as a practical aid to clear written communication this book would be extremely beneficial in a healthcare setting.' - Journal of Community Nursing 'well presented and easy to read. I think it would assist practitioners from different backgrounds and would be particularly useful for students. It is a good aid to effective writing which could be referred to whenever needed.' - Rostrum 'this book contains comprehensive information and practical guidance on the wide range of writing skills that health professionals need in order to be effective practitioners and communicators. The content is relevant to dietitians and covers many writing skills they need.' - Dietitians Today 'Written by an experienced lecturer and writer in communication skills who is a therapist, this book contains comprehensive information and practical guidance...'
