

This Is How I Save My Life A True Story of Embryonic Stem Cells, Indian Adventures, and Ultimate Self-Healing

By Amy B Scher

Amy B. Scher. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 252 pages. Dimensions: 8.4in. x 5.4in. x 0.7in. When Amy Scher, a die-hard eternal optimist finds her near-perfect 25-year-old body falling apart, she is met with pessimistic diagnoses and failed treatments. Stumbling through her party years with Ritz-Carlton-like hospital stays and specialists looking at her in stupefaction, her optimism remains, but the chance for recovery from late stage Lyme disease dwindles. Admittedly living a life of clichés such as there are signs everywhere, nothing is by chance, and this too shall pass, her life takes a U-turn after one serendipitous meeting in Maui. She falls into a conversation with a woman who has just returned from India after receiving radical medical treatment. Amy's love affair with signs from the Universe is all she needs to propel her research about this treatment--and from there, the adventure begins. Free spirited and fiercely driven, she takes a leap of faith and travels to Delhi, India for an experimental embryonic stem cell treatment. Unsure if she has been given the equivalent of a never-ending ladder in the game of Chutes and Ladders, or is making a medical mistake that will kill her, she dives in, never losing hold of her humor and hope. From the time she steps foot in the magical...

Reviews

Basically no terms to clarify. It is actually written in basic terms rather than confusing. I found out this ebook from my dad and I suggested this book to find out.
