This is a true glorious look at Medical Care, Par Excellence Nursing Care Caring. A compendium of incredibly eccentric Physicians and Consultants who cared for our patients during the 1950 s in England in a hospital we referred to as, The Fortress . In the days where hospitals were sometimes called the Infirmary , Emergency Rooms were called Casualty , and where the Matron in dark green and the Sisters in deep navy blue ruled supremely. These stern disciplinarians of the hospital systems throughout Great Britain demanded and got the finest, caring Nursing Care for their patients. This was a time when many of the Physicians came from generally wealthy families. They were not looking to make a fortune in medicine , but rather, theirs was more a desire to save mankind . Perhaps it was this noble attribute that engendered their fascinatingly bizarre eccentricities. None dare call them Mad! In those days, there was no use it once then throw it away. Everything had to be washed, scrubbed, irrigated, sharpened and...
