SO great is the demand for a simple and practical course of Club work in Household Economics, that it seems wise to add to the present volume, two programmes which have been tested in the clubs for which they were prepared. Dr. Mary Green is a well-known physician, whose book on the Foods of the World is given in the bibliography of the present volume, and Mrs. Watson is valued authority in the National Household Economic Association. The syllabus of the course of lectures by Professor Allen, of Armour Institute, has also been used by leaders of sections for study in these directions, who have chosen the points appealing most strongly to their special needs. In addition to these, is given the prospectus and constitution of the Chicago Household Economic Society, prepared by Mrs. Stetson and myself, and compressing into small space, the need and purpose of the work inaugurated by the National Association, under the leadership of Mrs. Laura Wilkinson, its president till 1896, when her place was filled by Mrs. Elizabeth Boynton Harbert. The Association has branches at many points, the most notable work being done in Philadelphia and Syracuse, though Boston leads in the matter of dietaries for schools, and the furnishing of carefully-prepared lunches for their pupils, the leader and authority at all points being Mrs. Ellen H. Richards of the Boston Institute of Technology. A summary of the work of Clubs has been made by Mrs. Estelle M....
