Reviews

It is great and fantastic. I actually have read and so i am certain that i am going to going to go through once again yet again in the future. I realized this ebook from my dad and i encouraged this book to find out.

Not illustrated. 1909 Excerpt: . . . it will aid him. Confidence in the commissioner, yes. We want to give to him all he wants to do if he does not have enough. I had more than I could do when I was commissioner and was glad to be relieved by any one that would help me out. President Marshall--I am inclined to think that it is not a privilege that the commissioners are asking for but rather that a proper record be kept of each certificate issued. Mr Sullivan--I am glad you make that suggestion. In the next blank for trustees annual report, we will make provision for a record to be filled out by the teacher of the number of certificates issued, the name of each child, the age and attendance so that there will come to the commissioner at the close of the year an exact record of this thing. We will put it into the register. President Marshall--That would help to some extent; or these certificates might be brought to the town clerk and for a fee of 5 or 10 cents put on record. Commissioner Wolcott--Now it seems to me that we do not go down far enough. You can not blame the attendance officer or the justice of the peace if the jury walks out and then comes back and renders the verdict of Not guilty. It seems to me that the best way to enforce the compulsory attendance law is to make the people...
