Excerpt from Diary of Francis Evans, Secretary to Bishop Lloyd, 1699-1706: Edited for the Worcestershire Historical Society The Diary of Francis Evans, Secretary to Bishop Lloyd, one of the famous Seven Bishops, was found by the late Bishop Philpott in the Muniment Room of Hartlebury Castle, and was deposited by him in the Diocesan Registry at Worcester. It is beautifully written in the clear and careful handwriting of a professional clerk, and it gives a unique picture of a bishops life in England 200 years ago. Francis Evans was, like his master, a Welshman. He followed the Bishop from St. Asaph to Lichfield, and from Lichfield to Worcester. His father, John Evans, kept the Bell Inn at Oswestry. Frank seems to have married above his position, for his wife was the daughter of the Lord of the Manor of Snelston in Derbyshire. He was a most faithful and diligent scribe. He chronicled every thing, events great and small - the death of King William III., and the death of the deer in the park; the Consecration...
